-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --
Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election with traverse of the restriction requirement in the reply filed on 6/19/2008 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that because the inventions are classified differently is not proof of divisibility. As set forth in MPEP 806.05(h) an apparatus and a method of using may be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product. See MPEP § 806.05(h). As set forth in MPEP 808.02, a serious burden is shown if the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification. The examiner has thus met the requirements for showing both distinctness and serious burden.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

2. Claims 1-25 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected inventions, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in the reply filed on 6/19/2008.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 26-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Debye 3683940.

5. Debye teaches a radially expanding joining member, comprising: an annular body portion defining a longitudinal axis including distal and proximal terminal edges, first and second side terminal edges; at least one annular array of openings formed in the annular body; and at least one locking tab extending tangentially from the first side terminal edge, each locking tab being in registration with a respective array of openings and receivable in the openings. wherein the joining member has a first position and a second position, wherein the at least one locking tab inhibits the annular body from returning to the first diameter by being received in an opening of the at least one array of openings; two annular arrays and two tabs extending tangentially from the first side edge; guide rails formed, one each, along each side of the two annular arrays of openings; a guide channel formed near the second side terminal edge; wherein the guide channel is defined by a pair of side walls extending radially inwardly from the distal end proximal terminal edges; wherein the guide channel is further defined by an end wall interconnecting the terminal ends of the pair of side walls; and a plurality of flanges extending radially outward.
